1000th Post

Ok here's my beef. P-ditty (<-- no idea if that is spelled right) is going to be the next james bond. He also has changed the name of bond to "Robert Ground" and instead of him being english....he is from harlem.

FG. According to him, it has been approved and will be out within 20 months.

WTF? Who would approve that? No. Just flat out no.

No one will go see it if they change it from James Bond... another good series of movies ruined. Let alone the fact that he is black.

Well, he's right. There's just some things you don't change. I think there could be a semi-successful spinoff of James Bond with P. Diddy being a secret agent from Harlem, but you don't change a series after decades of the same idea. A British (and white) secret agent. It's just like a white slave to a black guy in the early 1800's in the south. It just wouldn't make any sense.

Actually...there were white slaves in the early 1800's.

Can't be done, no one from Harlem can work for the BRITISH secret service. An American can't even be in the police over here if I remember correctly.

By the way, P.Diddy, isn't he a rapper that doesn't do much rap anymore? Also can you take seriously a guy that calls himself "Puffy"?

The only way this would work is if everybody thinks that it's so stupid that they would actually pay to laugh at it.

Meh, it's alright I guess. It's alright since there is no way in hell that there's ever going to be a worse movie than "The Truth About Charlie."

Yeah....Britain has nothing to do with this new movie, like stated above. Read it next time, might help out with your responses.
