A while ago, cncammo.com went down. They had some skins that I made for some people up there. Those skinned ended up looking pretty good. Now I want them back, but I don't know where to get them.

One pack made all the Nod vehicles a nice charcoal grey color. The flame tank had actual flames on the side.

The second pack changed all the Dead-6 members to look blue.

If anyone has these, or knows where I can get them, I'd really appreciate it.

Sorry, I meant to say tex, not skin. Oh, nevermind, no I didn't.

Please don't derail this thread with skin-texture bullshit, because nobody cares. I just want those skins.

Tried web.archive.org, no luck. shame too, I loved it when there was an option to list absolutely everything on one single page.

There must be somebody out there who saved back ups of it all...

I worked there during the final months. I always wanted a copy of the database but never got a hold of it.

I know the files you are speaking of.

The webmaster at the time was Seal who still does show his face from time to time here.

Dead-6 Blue Pack:

http://www.cncden.com/skins/if\_bd6.zip

Assassin from cnc-source.com should have any remains of cncammo's skin archive. Everything else is...gone. You or I can always just remake the skin pack.

SEAL - Thanks a LOT. I can probably remake the other pack easily enough, but I didn't want to go through the trouble of redoing the Dead-6 pack.

Moderators - Isn't it your job to deal with fucktards who can't understand this:

It's continuous quoting like that, that has gotten threads locked in the past. Not correcting skin/texture terminology.

If you can, send them to glyde@trielite.net , I have no limit on my mail address as long as you have no file attachment limits.

Or I could go and set up a FTP server again.
