I need to get a better understanding of how to set up normal buildings (AS, HON, BAR etc) from Renx right to gameplay. If someone could direct me to a understandable, simple tutorial, I would be very greatful.

Thanks a ton.

he did, the exe file is a self extracting zip

and u put a tib ref controller on the pp btw......you even called the pp the tib ref even when you had already set the ref up should be a nice tut for beginners though

Sfx Rar actually. Dont know what you guys can handle.

and i think your audio is off or something. Then again could be, i did the thing twice, the first time i went through all the nods too and the movie was 500+ mb, so i did it again and was all put out about it then

EDIT: yep looked at it and sure enough i called the powerplant the refinery

It's just an archive format , Winrar can open them and extract the contents.

also it means people without winrar can also use the file, because it also puts a small rar extractor in with the files, which is why its an exe file

I know what Winrar and .rar is, I use them all the time. I meant SFX rar.

SFX RAR = Self eXtracting RAR Archive
Same thing as a self extracting ZIP except...It's RAR.

Any luck on that upload?

If you can't get it, would you/someone compile a tutorial or direct me to a user friendly one?

I have his first one. I'm going through all my files getting ready to reformat my computer and found it.

If you want it you can contact me at Exdeath87 (AIM), DeathAX@hotmail.com (MSN) or
