I remember before EA messed up the Renegade homepage that they had pages with the ladder stats for every player.
For example, it would show #1 - #20 on one page and #21 - #40 on another or something. When you clicked on a user name, it would show you how many crotchshots, legshots, headshots, how many vehicles you destroyed, etc.
I know EA closed this down, but I remember somebody re-making an almost replica of this page.

My question is, do any of you know where this 're-made' ladder page is?

Cheers,
Andy

RenEvo features a Renegade Ladder Mirror though it is currently down and will return shortly.

dont know how accurate it is but it does list some of the stuff you wanted such as crotch shots etc.

Have you tried the normal WOL ladder recently? It has been working perfectly for me.
