I was kinda bored when i made this (skin), but i think it turned out quite well (the shoulder gets a little stretched sometimes, not my fault tho...)

download-> <http://hans.at.interims.de/nodinf.rar>

i've put a readme in the rar file, since there are quite alot of VERY thick people around who dont seem to get the mistery of copy and paste btw 1st post here... ello...

You didnt include the bones. Possibly the standard running animation

(Np for me, but it looked like you were trying to make it easier on less skilled people.)

EDIT: Oh i thought it was just a skin and you included the model so people could view it. It looks good but you forgot to put the shoulder pads to two side.

That is extremely narrow minded of you.
First off, you shouldn't randomly tell people that so and so has a lack of intelligence. Why? Because if you are thinking that the problem will go away if 3 people shutup, then YOU are the one who lacks intelligence.

If the 3 of us shutup and don't respond to his posts, then he'll start an argument with someone who is 8 years younger than him, then people will join in regardless.

This forum is turning into a fucking joke. EVERY thread is turning into a goddam flame war if there is a spelling mistake or use of the word "skin" or even if Reborn is brought up.

icedog90Okay, half of the people who agreed in Flyingfox's topic have just broken their vowel. You guys are impossible.

Gbull, DJM, and IRON-FART are pretty much the only ones who seem to just lack the intelligence for not replying to Aircraftkiller. IT'S SO EASY JUST TO IGNORE, SO DO IT PLEASE.

I have one post in this thread other than this one and I'm in the list? Whatever.....I'll just keep ACK on the ignore list so your ignorant comments have no bearing any further. Then everyone wins. I dont have to listen to an asshole, and you no longer have to hear me complain about him. and IRON FART is right, this forum is beginning to become a joke because of mindless flame wars and the child-like characteristics of people who ironically, are in their twenties.

I didn't know you ignored him, I was just going by what I've recently seen (which wasn't very long ago at all), not exactly in this topic. I don't see why you have to call my whole point ignorant just because of that.

I called you ignorant because of this:

icedog90I didn't know you ignored him

The difference between ignorance and Stupidity is that in order to show your idiocy you would have had to know about the situation before you made the dumb act. You didnt know, and that makes you ignorant instead of Stupid. But it seems I have a lack of intelligence according to you so why does my opinion have any recourse to you anyway?

No, I did know based on a fact about a week ago. I don't need to check the forums every two hours to make sure I'm 100% correct, neither do I need to visit them every single day, so your form of ignorancy isn't very well put.

Dude, I don't see why you're trying so hard to prove that I'm not perfect. People make mistakes, and I am sorry for making that mistake, but I guess it's the nature of these forums for people to point out everyone's mistakes so harshly.

Bull is an idiot, don't mind him... He'll probably take this post off ignore and respond to it, knowing how he's acted in the past. There's no reason to take his criticism with any seriousness because having an idiot criticize someone with intelligence is like listening to SuperFlyingEngie criticize President Bush, Engie is retarded and in no way has any ground to speak against the President as if he knew WTF he were talking about.

So yeah, Bull, keep responding to posts... That was his entire point, and you pretty much validated it by even responding to me to begin with. You ARE an idiot, just like the rest of these forum newcomers - don't pretend to be anything but, it's not that hard to see through the facade you put up.

That model is extraordinarily stinky and poorly constructed. The texture is mediocre. A lot of UV map space was wasted.

As opposed to A Path Beyond, which couldn't stick to Source cause you couldn't code what you needed, so you instead opt for a game that isn't even on the market yet, fuckin great leadership skills there.

Sempre un'amabile

La donna è mobil qual piuma al vento muta d'accento

e di pensier
e di pensier

È sempre misero
chi a lei s'affida
chi le confida
mal cauto il core

Pur mai non sentesi
felice appieno
chi su quel seno
non liba amore
