I don't think anyone cares about the renegade clan system anymore.

Not even the ladder... Most people that play it now just do it for fun.

Why would people respect something they don't care or ever even heard about anyway?

well I would have to say your wrong. Alot of people are still interested in the clans. Maybe not as many as 2 years ago but they are still around.

First of all I had left the whole community when LoD was started up. So I don't know much about/or care for them.

However, I do know that Boomer is the biggest n00b EVER. Anything he says is complete bullshit. The things he does are just pathetic.

He's holding some grudge against me and my clan and will take ANY opportunity to try and show me up. I won't go into stories.

So judging by my bias of Boomer, LoD has to be somewhat retarded.

Actually, it went like so: I joined the game with some name and I was Nod on Under and i was going on the hill and i saw Aeonreapers APC come down the hill (he was GDI) and there was some sniper or something on the edge and he ran towards him and squished him and managed to fall upside down and i fell down with him and he was going towards a tank to remote it and i remoted him once and then again to kill him afterwards he n00bed me for, and i quote, "back attacker" As if using 2 remotes to kill someone and he didn't turn around for either of them wasn't enough warning, but whatever. I explained to him that the negative rec meant so much to me because renegade is my life and since I had 0 recs to begin with (for joining on a different name) That I would have to kill myself. Anyways a little later he left and i called him a douche and he banned me for "come".

Now you may say I was in the wrong but this isn't the first time I've seen Aeonreaper be a complete tart to anyone that plays with him. as one-time i killed his sniper with an apc and he n00bed me for that. So as a moderator one would expect to uphold peace and justice, not cause it. Either way "douche" is not banning material, i do say. So if you think that's reason to ban someone then someone needs to find moderators who aren't inspired by Adolf himself.

N00bstories is running a beta version of the new brenbot, version 1.42. There is a bug that cuts off everything but the first word in kicks and bans. Thus why you were banned for "come." There was obviously more to it than that.

Punctuation please or hi mom look out for where is the today is Thursday.

But guys, I gave up on clans long before they became unpopular. I never saw the point in them. I do see the point in clans for game types such as MMORPGs though.

I'm sorry I do not meet your expectations instructor. I swear that i'll have my report done by the end of this week! Please... If this was a report due for school I'd check my writing and I'd give a damn because that would be the difference between a good grade and a bad grade. So hopefully you can manage reading without a few commas and mistakes that anyone makes..

@this topic - you really can't hardly base the whole of clans from one clan. There are many clans out there who strongly appose to cheating and such. Some include only just for playing the game without funwars or clanwars. as well as there are clans that soley play just for those clanwars because that's the only fun they get out of this game.

Enjoy your stupid power trip. You r just banning everyone left to right for stupid reasons. I think I now remember your stupid n00b name. You have been playing this game for at least more than 2 years and you still suck at It...No wonder why you just sit all day on IRC and acting like a fucking Prick. Anyway, you can ban me from all the servers you want. I don't really give a shit, because I can just always join another server. It's just funny how you make a big deal out of stupid things so you can feel like a big boy banning people. Pretty Pathetic I'd say.

FATAL ERROR: STUPIDITY OVERLOAD

Could you please learn how to use punctuation, and write out words instead of typing u, or r instead of you or are. It takes a fraction of a second longer and makes your posts readable. It also makes people think that maybe your not a dumbass pissy 13yr old.

oh and Renx the story I said is how it happened. The only offensive thing i said was "douche" if that really is a swear word (i would consider it more an insult than swear)

He left and i called him a douche. he saw it on irc and all I know is that I was banned for "come". I know that wasn't the entire reasoning of course. So unless "back attacking" is punishable by ban, then I'm not certain why I got banned?

Well, jschultz9, I'm glad you took the time to post here as well, as if we really cared about it on our forums or something, but that's cool. I'm glad you think you're the shit because you got a potential cheater out of your server, but that's only going to bore you, you'll have 1 less person to look after with your super admin powers. You can ban my whole clan from your crappy server, nobody cares, there's only 1, maybe 2 people that play(ed) on that server before, so keep it up. I don't understand why you're making such a big deal out of nothing if the guy actually apologized to you, but whatever. I'm glad you still care about your server. Maybe you should stop wasting your administrating your server and kicking most people for disagreeing with your stupidity and make this game a little better by getting better at it. Nobody gives a shit for public servers, except for maybe the nobodies and Spoony so you can quit wasting your's and everybody else's time on posts like these, because the people here with brains already know what public server moderators are like. If s2 had cheated in a clan war, where there's actually a point in playing, and the skill level problably tripples the skill level in your server, we maybe would have done something about it. You can call us cheaters all you like now, we don't give a shit. We know we don't need to cheat against n00bs like you to be better, and he only did it our of boredom, because people like you make this game even more boring than what it is now by presenting little or no challenge to anyone at all.

You can keep arguing but, think about this for a moment. I once cheated in a public server, just once, and am I known as a cheater? No, because I did it once, and only once just to see what it was like. Maybe that's what s2 was doing? Wr$ has cheated in public servers too, and you don't see people calling him a cheater, and same goes for Adam and many, many others, so call the LoD clan, or s2 a cheater all you want, but s2 can own your ass any day of the week whether he's banned from your n00b server or not.

BTW, Iron Fart, please try not to use the word 'n00b' to describe me, because we both very well know that you're one of GameSpy's worst, and I own you, thx wow... talk about retardation :rolleyes:

Some prick cheats in a server, gets banned, threatens to repeatedly crash it just because he's pissed at getting banned, and you flame the server admin?

The only fuckup here is S2... If you didn't have anything to do with LoD you would instantly see what a bitch he acted. All he's done is prove how absolutely right Jschultz was to ban him.

PS: if you think wrs or adam have never cheated in a clanwar then just go shoot yourself now, they have done that loads of times :rolleyes:

This is the thing I hate about CW... people there are fucking idiots, they do something unbelievably retarded, get banned for it, and then act like it's everyone's fault but theirs...

mrpirateicedog90I am one of Jschultz's friends? Sorry, I have never met the guy in Renegade ever in my life. I would also like to know where I talked "shit" about "stuff" I don't know about.

OK, so you don't know anyone on either side of this argument. Perhaps--and this is only a guess--the thread could have gone on perfectly well without your constant grammar corrections. Fuck off, you little grammar nazi douchebag.

And it could of kept on going fine if you hadn't of posted that. The topic was still perfectly fine. Besides, if everyone ignored my post (except for that one person) then none of this would of happened. My "grammar corrections" aren't constant, that's just a random fact pulled out of your ass.

I'm sure everyone really appreciates your know-it-all posts that won't derail a thread, so long as no one reads them.

AircraftkillerAnd yet if I had said what spreegem wrote, people would complain about it incessantly.

Yeah, probably so. People don't seem to like you when you correct their spelling and grammer mistakes. However, when other people do it no one complains about it.

Yeah, it was pretty pointless and annoying, but it's always funny to do that to people who can't even attempt to use proper English. Don't any of you say any BS about how maybe English isn't their first language, because you know what? You don't learn in your foreign language English class to spell you like u, or are like r. If it were merely grammatical mistakes, then I would understand that they probably don't speak English as their primary language. However when you mis-spell common words that you probably learned in the first chapter of your foreign language English book or whatever, then you probably shouldn't be taking the class. Also . . . don't any of you give me any BS about how I probably don't speak a foreign language, because I do. . . I'm in my second year of Spanish at my highschool. I would have much rather learned German, but my school doesn't offer it.

and I suppose you can type perfect Spanish, right? Besides the point - Why would you strike at a person's flaw? Do you get some sense of power and jerk off to it? English, unfortunately for you, doesn't mean how smart a person is. I find it just as long as i get a point acrossed, that's all that matters. Sew if eye wanna talkie liek this, i have every right. If you're stupid to judge a person -over the internet- how well their English is, despite not knowing the person at all, then i'm afraid you're a moron. Especially when you, sadly, make fun of them for it.

Actually, the words that I do know in Spanish I can type, except for the accents, I can't ever figure out how to type those, I know you press alt and then numbers on the num-pad for the different accented letters and other characters, but I can't ever seem to remember what they are. Then again I could always go into word and insert the different special caracters, but it's always easier just to print the paper or whatever I'm working on then add in the accents by hand.

Also, common words should not be mis-spelt. I corrected him because he should learn how to spell common words properly, even if English isn't his first language. If you don't take the time to even attempt to spell things properly then that's pretty stupid. I never said that typing English properly determines how smart a person is. However, like I said before mis-spelling common words is stupid. People do it all the time, even when they do know English and it is extremely annoying. Yes, you have every right to type however you want, but mis-spelling common words is as I said before stupid. I only care about common words really, I don't care if you can't spell stuff like dictionary, discussion or other semi-large words, but mis-spelling a word like you, or are is just, well. . . stupid. BTW I do jerk off to correcting people's spelling mistakes.

you have been typing "mis-spelt" and such, when it's misspelled(proper). Do i have to tell you each time that you are not typing right? No. In my eyes i see typing "are", r, better than misspelling a word you should know. I have many doubts people who spell it "r" do not know how to spell it. It's probably 50/50 that people can type just as well as most or even better than nazis like you. Yet, they don't. So you can complain and 'laugh' at their, quote, "stupidity" for writing it that way as long as you want. The fact that it "annoys" you so much I don't see why they should have to. Besides that it's pretty low to go complain about how a person types. I mean do you really sit here and want to correct every "r" and "u" you see? If so be my guest. As a favour on any post you see, can you rewrite it without "u"s, and "r"s so that every person who get annoyed and are incapable of reading them? At least that way you will be contributing to solve the problem instead of whining about it.

Oh and I was pointing out that you have a leet cheating section in your site anal much? seriously if you have to stray a topic off course to make a point about how ppl use "u" instead of you and "r" instead of are then we need to make a summer program for all the juvenile delinquents to pull that stick out of your ass.
