Pfft, I got 6 mbps Comcast Cable, best in my area right now. 6 mbps down, 768 kbps up. I want more upload speed, and a better server more than anything though.

deadfivel am just extremely excited that I am back online. And man is this internet better compared to 256k dsl.

I didn't have the Interweb since about July 2004, so I guess I got behind a little. On a side note, I know how to use it better than anyone I know...

damn you lucky bastards.

512k down 256k up and the worst bit is it's AOL.

512 is the absolute max we can get in our area.

Same for me.

I may be able to get 1MBit with another ISP but my ISP only has 512 max.
