Since we are all blind and can't quite exactly know what is currently finished, can we have some sort of topic(s) showing what exactly is going on with the BHS products? For example:

Topic: Core Patch 2 Progress: 43% complete

Post: We are currently working on blahblah blah, etc, etc, and is expected to be completed on yadda yadda. Next we'll be working on this and that, etc.

I think this would be better than just bits and pieces every month or so.
