I've wanted to turn Fallout II into a 3D shooter for a loooonnggg time. Renegade's Tiberium sold me, and the mutant team is a HUGE plus. I am working on terrain, towns, buildings, and vehicles. Think you can model a .223 Full auto sniper rifle (Bozar) and some Adv. Power Armor? If anyone has spent hours playing this game, and has experience in character modeling please contact me. Try putting your detail settings up. You'll see blood.

Call the mod Fallin instead of fallout, and keep everything 1 step away from the game, so no one can sue.
