I've been looking around for a while now trying to get this map I made on the forums but I just can't find somewhere to upload my stuff.

- 1: Where is a good place to upload images free.
  - 2: Where can I upload larger files, such as zipped maps.

www.imageshack.us can be used to upload images.

It's about impossable to find any good and free file storages on the web though.

Ah, thanks. I used to use the n00bstories one but I didn't see it. Guess I had to log in before it would show up.

This place isn't the most reliable but it works almost all the time for me, and you can store up to 50mb files, weather its a picture or a zip etc.
