was you playing in a modified server?

I have never seen this in a standard server, it normally happens on a modified map where there are not enough spawn locations and points set up, when the map loads people get stuck together...

hows about we bring back telefraging its one of the coolest aspects of a game ever so if you spawn on top of someone they die :twisted:

Since you'd most likely be spawning ontop of your own teammate, you'd be killing your own fragrate. Not good..., right?
