It's a windows media video, just download the archive and extract with winrar. Then play it with Windows Media Player.

arh man, that was well worth a watch, nice one guys. Very cool. Infact it would be nice for someone to make a screen saver out of it, or something similar, that would be a nice thing to have edit had no sound before (crappy headset wasn't working) now with the sound it is even better!

Nice.

So you're having a topic with the title "CnC Reborn : Tiberian Sun Menu" with a link to a video that contains 24 seconds menu and 1 minute 24 seconds other crap? How nice.

you know what would be nice..

if the reborn team posted something, anything that gave people the inclination to think "this mod might be balanced and quite fun to play" as it stands, the 101 topics you've already made don't do that, they just show off some leet new model or texture, or a modified menu system. tip: nobody cares about the menu, they care about the game itself.

Gotta love it when you rip off the TS menu because you can't replicate it yourself.

The infantry animations are all stock Renegade, notice a part where a soldier is using his arm to wipe his mouth off. That's wonderful, show us a bunch of animations that barely apply to Recorn: The Ultimate Corn Harvest! Especially ones that don't even fit a soldier wearing a full head helmet.

It's also amusing how some of the animations show the shoulder armor clipping into the soldiers' arms. Great forethought in making those characters!

answer to flyingfox:

That will come when buildings will be finished.

And it's not because we make a menu or show some models that we aren't working on the rest. If we aren't showing it, it's because we are working on it. s i m p l e!

If those are your only complaints, it seems like Reborn did a pretty good job with this update.

How many fucking times do I have to tell you that this is a beta, things change. Take that fucking dick out of your ear and listen you moron.

I'm not siding with Reborn, I'm not siding with RenAlert. I'm just defending a team of people with a talent that you feel like bashing because you are the "ultra leet mod maker."

sorry RenX, can't see your post or the post of some other people here. I guess you will figure why... So don't lose your time on my topics.

But do it if you like to make me see : 'this user is on your ignore list... blah blah blah...'

I saw the post of the stupid jonathan holmes because someone quoted this thing.

:twisted:

Trying to understand the dribble you just posted is harder than getting a nun to give you some, seriously.

Would you like me to remove your shovel before you dig your own hole? I wish I could.

Your personality towards people sucks as much ass as Aircraftkillers, or even more, now THAT's a statement.

As far as the menu goes, it could use a lot of work, those animations aren't anything incredible or such. It all just seems like fodder. How about squeezing out something that will make us go "WOW! We want to see more of that!"
