God how do you even get power to begin with? Every time she hits no matter what it's like 12% power and he goes nowhere.

I figured out the power part, you hold the mouse button, but it's fucking impossible to even get passed 1000. You guys are doing something that you're not telling, because there is no way to even get above 1000.

The best combo you can ever get is hitting the girl that ends the game, but getting a special out of it. She shoots you further than any other. I gained a height of 220 or something, heh.

No, the best thing you can do is hit a BLOCK girl and then a STOP right after. A random special will happen, and it gives you less time to click on the screen than a normal special. It was awesome, I was just trying to beat 5,300, then all of a sudden I got something that made me bounce faster and harder everytime. By the end of the effect I'd gone up 800m a leap and way past 8,000.
