I like SP mode and MULTIPLAYER mode , but to play multiplayer ,you gotta have RENGUARD. renguard will not play offline on dial-up with out moving some files around. SHIT Im not into all that file moving stuff, so can someone break it down to the simple form. Like a three step form or some like that.

Unless your computer has some really really funky crap going on, Renegade should play singleplayer missions just fine while RenGuard is running.

Let me clear it up, what I meant say is renguard will not let me play offline.
Olny way I can play is if im on the internet.

THX Sanada78 and csskiller for the info

You dont need to run renguard if you're playing offline...

Just copy the shortcut to Renguard and change the "Game.exe" part in it, to "Game2.exe"

I think he means that if your internet is down you won't be able to play ren with RG.

And that is correct... So just use the second game.exe.
