I know how much "everyone" here loves our beautiful Reborn updates, so I thought I'd give you "good" people a look at our latest update, the GDI Barracks, which was Modelled and textured by the very talented Sloth4urluv. Enjoy:

Sloth also created a quick video tour of the barracks for your pleasure, enjoy:

I love that video tour, everything about it really appeals to me. I really like the interior design on it, The music kicks ass, and it goes right blends in nicely with the building preview.

Only thing i do see as excessive is the amount of beds, since each one has to be around 80 polygons it sure adds up using 24 or more.

Looks great. This release of the Barracks is top notch and the interior had a good feel and ya maybe trim down the amount of beds. It makes the rooms look too full.

Is the diamond with the GDI symbol the pedestal?

Good Work!

I like how you keep showing us this detestable shit in 3D Studio renders, instead of showing them in-game when you're perfectly capable of doing it.

LOL, and you once proclaimed the Reborn team INCAPABLE of "doing" it. :rolleyes:

LOL NO I DIDN'T LOL IT'S SO FUNNY BECAUSE I NEVER SAID THAT LOL!

Wow, I just watched that video and was so not impressed. It's got the same empty interior as the Refinery, barely any texture detail (WTF are warning stripes doing inside a barracks? Aren't you supposed to be safe inside the place you sleep, you retards?), and a few bunk beds. No visible light sources, and the EVA logo ripped off from Tom's website.

Then you get like two seconds of the exterior and you can tell that it looks like complete ass due to how the engine renders it.

Wonderful... I mean that in the worst way possible.

You've got to admit that its an improvement over the last barracks, eh Aircraftkiller? I like the interior and theres still time to make arrangements. And even you can agree that its more interesting than the refinery interior. Overall, good job!

Also, I've noticed that you've posted twice and haven't said the general type of things you usually say, and you havent said "Reborn sucks" yet. You're losing your touch

I like it a lot.

But replace some of the beds with other interior objects to fill it up a bit.

As opposed to your Refinery, with the most obvious repetitive texture.

I like how you keep on showing us renders for RA: APB instead of in-game renders. (hahaha yea I know that BF2 isn't released yet) They're doing exactly the same thing that you're doing, although these are not in-game.

i'm kinda amazed how ACK made the mistake of saying "
I like how you keep showing us this detestable shit in 3D Studio renders, instead of showing them in-game when you're perfectly capable of doing it." before even watching the video that included the in-game graphics... then he totally escaped from that the responsibility of that false statement... as if he never made a mistake of bashing before watching...

anywayz... barracks... not bad.. the beds were kinda odd tho. but... meh...

AircraftkillerVideos aren't screenshots, which is obviously what I was talking about... idiot.

A video is a better incidation than a SS in some cases, but in others it won't get the same quaility that you need.

Not when it comes to detail. You could barely see anything inside that so-called barracks, and the three seconds you see on the outside aren't enough to clue you in about the entire structure's appearance.

Images would do this better than a poorly made video would.

an idiot u call me...? against you, i'm not...i'm only agasint your false statement... obvious..?

screenshot is better..? then perhaps next time u should suggest the use of screenshot instead of a video... not complain about something that is irrelevant to facts provided...

Quote:

in that previous statement, you were obviously stating that "in-game" graphics were not presented by the Reborn team while there was actual evidence existing to prove your statement false... an in-game video tour was there... now i kinda question myself.... how do you define the term

"in-game".....

not a single word pointed towards the idea of how "screenshot provides better quality previews"..

it might be reasonable to say that "screenshot provides better quality previews" is common-sense to ppl.. but common sense or not.. your statement was irrelevant in anyway regarding the presentation of an "in-game screenshot"...

I did say they needed to put up images instead of videos. It's not my fault that you're too incompetent to understand what I said. The context for that statement was "images" because 3D Studio renders are always image files.

You are an idiot. Do yourself a favor and stop posting here until you can figure out what context in a sentence is.

the word "images" u say..? u must be having some kind of illusions..? i see not of that word... and that was your initial statement...

u can't make corrections to the past.... now can u..? well of couse... unless u edit your post.. but besides that.. your initial bashing was totally out of line..

what you add after this initial post of yours.. is unrelated to how u started off your ridiculous beggining arguement..... perhaps u should take another look...

I've only seen two periods from you in this thread. Technically three if you count the one from Aircraftkiller's quote. Elipses are not periods.

@Renardin: You do realize that pausing a video can (and usually does) decrease the quality of the image, right?

Battlefield 2 is not out yet so,. it's pretty impossible for him to show in-game graphics. so it is reasonable i suppose...

even if he didn't.. it is normal...

oh.. periods.. blah.. my bad chatting habbits of using "....." do excsuse my gramatical errors.
