It's because acf has a mild dislike for Reborn and it's team, as do several other people on this forum. Then is anyone dares to defend a mod they think has potential and want to play when it's ready they get insulted, causing them to reply and the topic soon becomes about how person one is an idiot for liking reborn (and occasionally some random insult about liberals sneaks in at this point) and person two is a retard for not liking reborn and/or for liking RenAlert, then person three will add that that acf is a twat several people will agree then, acf will come up with some bullshit imply that everyone who doesn't agree with him is either wrong, a moron, a liberal or all three and then topic dies after a while.

Because Aircraftkiller (Who doesn't like to be called ACK even though he feels that he can call other people what he wants) hates Reborn for some reason. We're not really sure why; if you ask him he'll say something like "I don't have to explain the facts to you. Reborn Sucks." and some other random shit about how their "textures suck," that their "skins are not textures," and that "that's not how Westwood did it. I could do better but I've got more important things to do like work on my own mod. Oh yeah, Reborn Sucks." Then of course, Renardin gets mad, posts something stupid, leaves (Aircraftkiller: "YAAAAAAAAY!!!!") comes back several weeks later trying to get ACK banned but only succeeding in making other people mad at him (Aircraftkiller: "You see, your such a fucking retard that you make an idiot of yourself.") and posts some news, everybody flames him because they all are with Aircraftkiller for some reason. When Renardin does post some news, there's a whole outburst of flaming from people (Aircraftkiller: "That's a render. That's not in-game." Somebody else: "Your renders aren't in game. Battlefield 2 hasn't been released yet.") who don't like reborn and think that his work sucks and that his textures are too repetative and crap like that. This has gone on for several months now, with no end in sight unless:

- (a) Aircraftkiller leaves or is banned
- (b) People stop bashing Reborn, or
- (c) Aircraftkiller changes his additude.

So, that about sums it up.

All quotes from ACK are generalizations and are not things that he actually said, though I could be wrong there.

Oh I'm sure, just making an inital impression of the forums, and of course exaggerating for comedic effect. From what I've seen from some lurking, there are a few intelligent people here, but they seem to be vastly outnumbered. Reminds me of an UnModerated forum I frequent.

CrimsonWell, we are pretty lenient in what can be posted here and overall it's worked out well for traffic.

Right, and intelligence had little barring on whether people will abuse the forums, so a much easier job for the mods. Also, sorry for derailing the topic, I try and keep that to a minimum usually.

Intelligence has little to do with disliking something with a passion. I'm sure there's something out there you've badgered constantly; that doesn't mean you're stupid. It just means you're out to prove something and that you'll do it one way or the other.

I personally view you as being stupid for judging people's intelligence based on how much they dislike something. If that were accurate, you'd be just as stupid as the others you condemned.

Wow, you do pick fights quickly don't you? Okay, I'll bite.

AircraftkillerIntelligence has little to do with disliking something with a passion.

No, I judge intelligence based on how people act, and all I was saying was I see people acting like 12 year olds.

AircraftkillerI'm sure there's something out there you've badgered constantly; that doesn't mean you're stupid.

It's not stupid to fight for a cause, which I understand. However what you're doing is nearly an annoyance, you dislike someone and so you badger them to try and get them to stop, to humiliate them, or simply because you find it fun. I did this too, when I was 10. Since then I've learned that if you disagree with someone it is best to state your point and only continue the argument if it is something you believe is worthwhile, however notice how I say "argue," not "act like a whiny bitch."

Aircraftkiller personally you as being stupid for judging people's intelligence based on how much they dislike something.

Nowhere did I ever say you were stupid, I was not specific in naming anyone anywhere in the three posts I've made here. I never said anyone was stupid for disliking something, I dislike black beans and rap, but I'm not an idiot for doing so nor do I consider those who do as being unintelligent. What I find unintelligent is consistent bickering and a general lack of maturity that I have seen in a couple threads around here. Basically, you're not stupid, you just aren't mature either.

I've never seen a 12 year old that acts like we do here in these forums. I have, however, seen 12 years olds that feign superiority and go around calling people idiots because the individuals targeted don't act the way that person wants them to.

You don't even know why I attack Reborn, do you? If you did perhaps your opinion would change a bit and you wouldn't automatically judge me and others because you weren't around to understand why we're doing this.

Maturity is subjective, kid. Try not to pretend that your standard of maturity is universal.

RenAlert sucks. I have reasons to back this up.

That is exactly how you sound. If your reasons are so high and mighty, just reveal them and let this all end... If there are no reasons, just drop it.

uurmek Well that was a waste of time, you obviously missed my point and enjoy putting words in my mouth. You're not helping any to change the first impression you give off, just so you know.

Perhaps you're not as smart as you're pretending to be, and your words were interpreted exactly as you wrote them. Next time go for the extra effort and write it exactly how you mean it instead of allowing holes in your argument that can be exploited to my advantage... Because if this is how you argue, I can see every other argument leading to "But you're putting words in my mouth" which I've never done for two reasons:

1. We're not speaking, we're typing.
  2. You didn't make your writing articulate enough to put any words anywhere they already weren't.

I don't think we can really explain. It's more something like an obsession.

Some kids feel better by bashing, leaking, arguing the whole day... That's a bit sad. But we can't do anything to stop them. They need to grow up.
