Micheal didn't do it. People just wanted to get some money from him.
So what are y'all opinions on the verdict.

I never really had an opinion on the trial the whole time. It's rumored that the family and the child that was accusing Michael Jackson of molestation had a background of suing celebrities and various other "important" people just to get at some money.

Well, whatever the case may be I don't really care much for it. I'll let the people who care about it decide.

I think the accuser was just a money-hungry bitch, same as that stupid whore that tried to convince everyone she found a finger in her chili at Wendy's. Jacko is DEFINITELY weird, and he does seem to be fond of young boys, but from my experience with child molesters, they are almost always ashamed of their feelings and WANT to be stopped, and often confess readily.

I don't know... I just think there's reasonable doubt, and when that exists, you can't find them guilty.

I didn't know, so I didn't pass judgement. Only one who truly knows were the boys and Michael. Hope they made the right decision.

That's because if he was found guilty, he would be in jail and then you couldn't visit him for those midnight romps through the *cough* ball pit.
