Hi,

I admit i was banned a long time ago, i was on the dark side from renegade. ( i used a lot of cheats, andi used a blacklistid game2.exe )

But yesterday i joined a clan, and i need renguard to play.

My leader says it's his responsibility that i don't cheat, when im staying in his clan...

the name i was banned, is:

In the future i'm gonna play on the name: =|-TF-|=DragonFace my clan site is: www.tribal-fighters.tk

you can PM =|-TF-|=Vaisor[ld] about this

thanks for all

All these stupid requests to get unbanned are getting stupider by the day. It is getting quite cliché.

For future people banned from RG don't ask unless you really have a real reason to be banned.

P.S. Nightspark this post was not aimed completely at you I'm stating it in general for this forum.

you guys plz unban him, i confirm he said it's my responsibility and thats true. i am vaisor, his leader and it would be cool from you if you unban. he won't cheat anymore, he admitted that he was fuckin with RG, but i will make sure he doesnt do it again. if he hacks/cheats again in the time HE IS IN MY CLAN you may ban him again + me.

i take responsibility ( dnno really good how you write it ) for my members and we need this guy. we want to play cheatfree wars in RG servers and Nightspark has to be able to play too.

plz unban him, i respect the RG guys and never hacked so i've been a good boy ..

thx

well... i didn't know i was going to be banned but i'm just a lazy n00b that is downloading other peoples stuff ... why is that so dangerous ??? and beside that ... mostly in other games ... you'll always get a 1 warning... and i didn't had 1 warning ...

but please ... i don't want to harm renguard or you guys ... i'd just want to play in my clan without truble ...

@ csskiller
i have 1 really good reason:
I'd change my renegadelife and joined a clan ...

Nightspark wrote on Thu, 23 June 2005 11:59I'd change my renegadelife and joined a clan ...The fact that you have what you call a "Renegadelife" speaks volumes about the condition of your mind, Nightspark. Go outside. Walk around in the local park for a while. Grab a Pepsi. If you must play Renegade further, you're likely stuck with only non-RenGuard servers. Deal.

Nightspark wrote on Sat, 25 June 2005 12:12if this can not be Legal ... then i think i have to go the other wayAlternatively. . .you might want to consider investing in a new copy of Renegade, or at least finding yourself a new, legal serial number, then make a new identity for yourself. But that's only if you really, truly want to go that far. And of course, if you screw up and get your ass banned again, well. . . You're out another $5.00 to $30.00. Heh. But if you feel the need to try and gain access back into the RenGuarded servers, may I suggest that you not announce your plans/threats for doing so via illegal means where everyone can see it? That's like signing your own death warrant for any and all Renegade identities.

Get a new computer. You can get a good one for about $800.
Afterwards, yeah, get a new Renegade and Username.

i showed my mistake to every one and you still won't help me to play with Renguard lol, but don't think im gonna succeed in bypassing renguard... it's impossible... and i'm good boy .. i won't do that

All sarcasm and snideness aside, yes, I was being quite serious. The only thing you can do is find, buy, or otherwise obtain a new Renegade serial number -- preferably one that isn't already blacklisted(IE ones from Warez and the sort) -- and create a new account. Make sure that you don't use your old name, however. Renguard and Blackhand Studios not only blacklist the serial numbers, but the nicknames they're attached to on Westwood Online or Gamespy Arcade. All this aside, keep in mind that if you make the same mistakes that lead you to be banned in the first place, you will once again be banned. Of course that goes without saying, but still. . . And finally, correct me if I'm wrong, but considering Crimson himself made this suggestion in another topic I recall reading, this does not violate Renguard rules and regulations, written or unwritten, and therefore, is not a punishable offense. I believe it falls under the category of . . ."Making someone pay for a new copy of Renegade just so they can play on Renguarded servers is punishment enough." Or something. But don't quote anyone but me on that. Being a random game player, I speak only for myself, and not for Blackhand Studios, associates, affiliates, or even fans there-of and there-in.

So. . .yeah. I've babbled enough.
