What's your favorite type of military Aircraft? I've had a recent obsession with it, again...

I'd say that my favorites are:

EF-2000

F-15

F-22

Orca VTOL Assault Craft

A flying killer whale

Or if you want something real..

A-10A Thunderbolt II

It's all about firepower.

I prefer the F-15 ACTIVE (Advanced Controls Technology for Integrated Vehicles) over any other aircraft to be honest.

Outmaneuvers a standard F-15C/E easily, and is almost at the level of the Sukhoi 35.

Meh, the more I read about it, the more I like it.

The Avro Arrow.

Same. But i have to say that thing doesn't really look like it was disigned by a human...

Maybe the US found alien technology at area 51...

SR-71 Blackbird, a plane that doesn't need to be stealthy. Unclassified files say it can go around Mack 3.5, but it was never retired because they found a aircraft that was better, which would mean one day they might want to bring her back into service, so I don't know if all the files are unclassified.

Favorite fighter: The F-22 Raptor. It's being made to replace other fighters like the F-15. It's stealth, and is capable of reaching mach 1.5 without afterburners (supercruise).

Favorite bomber: The B-1B Lancer. It has a top speed of over 900 MPH, and can carry a payload double that of the B-52 Stratofortress (About 135,000 pounds versus about 70,000 pounds.)

Favorite attacker: The A-10 Thunderbolt II. It's an anti-tank gatling gun with wings.

It's 30mm depleted uranium bullets are about a foot long, including the casing. (This is about as close to actual size as I could get it on a 1024x768 resolution.)

From what I have heard the Eurofighter beats most fighter's these days but that's just because it's newer then most of the fighters I don't like it but worth mentioning.

My favorite is the F-14 Tomcat

<http://www.navy.mil/management/photodb/photos/011219-N-0382M-010.jpg>

Which was probably influenced by having a father in the navy, I got to go on a lot of naval ships and aircraft carriers and see them up close

My favorite bomber would have to be the B1-B Lancer, like Phoenixx.
Its more of a Fighter-Bomber than a Fighter, but my favorite Fighter is the F4 Phantom, used very well in the Vietnam Conflict.
My favorite Chopper would have to come from the US Delta Force. The Black Hawk.

F-15C, P51D, and F-4G.

Or as far as experimentals go, X-29 and F-15S/MTD(which later became ACTIVE).

My favorite helicopter would be the RAH-66 Comanche, even though it was cancelled. I don't get why it was cancelled, or why it was being made primarily as a recon/scout to supplement the AH-64D Apache Longbows instead of replacing them. It's stealth, and can carry many more weapons (double sets of wings if needed) then the Apaches could.
