It's done through IRC with brenbot or a similar program. The only way you can control when you get temped is by not being stupid while you play, basicly.

It's also up to the people who run the server.

Why do people want to be mods?

It's just more work for you. Play the game.

Yes, why would you want tons of people constantly complaining about cheaters and novs to you while your trying to play? Trust me, it is VERY annoying. Don't bother.

People who want to be a mod, make the worst moderators.
