Should've thought twice before replacing a file and using RenGuard, don't you agree?

There's also a big list of files that you can't replace. You may or may not have had the intent of cheating, but using those files can get you banned. Most of the time, I believe almost all of the time, when you get banned it's a more serious issue, such as replacing game.exe or game2.exe. There is, of course, the chance of setting off alarms repeatedly, thus causing swift actions to be taken.

RenGuard is designed to detect and disallow cheats. If you use it, it is the authority that decides if you play legit or not. Even if you have cheats, you can't use them, so you will play fair on servers.

When you attempt to bypass RenGuard, you intend to CIRCUMVENT this authority and cause mayham on servers, knowing exactly that you will disrupt the gameplay of others.

That's like.. bypassing security to plant a bomb, knowing exactly what you will do will cause damage.

They cannot ban you more than on the game serial. Buy a new renegade and use an other user name...

And I never cheated and will never do it!

This bring back my good point...why cheat? If you have no skill and hate being noob for those couple months, dun play this game. Dont ruin it for other people.

well, i dont cheat very often this time.

But when i did, it was likely more as revenge.
when i was banned a few months ago, i went to this forum and asked for an unban, people laughed and shouted and ignored me, from that moment i didnt like the anti-cheat people.

This made me mad so i went learning cheats and that stuff, to take revenge.
But ATM there are two me's

1. Very very often playing renegade, like 4 hour in a week cause of my clan, and when my girlfriend isnt online.

2. A very familier guy in the cheat community that is taking revenge.

But when i check the forums these week, people are becoming more nicer against people, this is nice ... hes asking why ... on a friendly way not mention to be sarcastic.

From this post one ... Cheat and Anti-cheat are equal for me,

- Both arent stupid neither good.

- Cheating is bad, im only using it cause of revenge.

From now on, im having respect for Mac, Crimson, Blazer and all the guys here.

200% sure that EVERYONE has cheated if they have had the chance to?I think you need to rethink that number...

I'd say that you've admitted to cheating, and that you will continue to do it "in the name of revenge".

If it were up to me, I'd keep you banned. You'd just have to explain to your clan mates that why you were banned from the network in the first place.

Cheatcommunity ... they agree under 1 condition ... NEVER under the clanname and yes ... ive admit i cheat ... and i also admit that im pretty good ... better then you think and im still banned

but the point is ... i do like you guys atm ... so im not making a fight

Hold the phone... Where do you go off saying anti cheat isn't good? If by not good you mean not good for people who suck intolerably at this game and have to cheat to be even remotely good - well then I guess I can agree with that one stipulation made possible by you

By the way, nice justification there, Quote: Cheating is bad, im only using it cause of revenge.

What are you fucking 12? If you don't get it, let me put it this way. A car cuts in front of you and you go and ram him. So what are you going to say, "Oh well i figured it was OK for me to do it because he cut me off"

Besides the point maybe you should start pointing at yourself. You do realize that you wouldn't have ever got in the position where people would laugh at you if you never cheated in the first place. But please, go ahead and continue your childish rant. I mean you don't have a motive behind cheating the first time, right? You can't possibly blame it on revenge when it never happened.

and on the point of "trying cheats" I haven't cheated once in this entire game, nor have i ever intended to. I guess I believe in the whole thing where people play a game without having others trying to ruin it by playing unfairly.

Someone pissing you off is not a reason to cheat. It's a reason to demand a fair 1v1.

I have never cheated on renegade or any other online game.

why? because it spoils the game.. wheres the challenge if you can walk around, randomly shooting a pistol and all the bullets lock onto a target and kill them with one shot, including vehicles and w/e ? sounds kinda boring to me

So when they banned you, your course of action was to prove how absolutely right they were to do so. Good idea.

Disprove at least one thing I just said. If you can't, maybe that's the reason why it pisses you off. I never said I was anybody in this forum. I'm a hell of a lot smarter than you, though. I'm also not shouting... I don't see how you can say my text is shouting at you. While we are at it, can you tell me what I'm blaming at, as well. No? That's a shame. I'm not trying to do anything with my post except teach you. Do you see anything wrong with cheating for revenge? I mean when you got banned and the people talked crap about you - instead of doing the right thing, you went and cheated more. Most likely probably not even against the people that talked crap about you in the first place. So the only people you're actually hurting, is the people who just want to play this game without cheaters. Maybe if you admitted you were in the wrong in the first place and that it was very childish to cheat because people - over the internet - talked shit to you, you'd get more respect

By the way, what clan is it, that you're in?

Explained why i got banned.

I admit i did it myself.

asked nice for an unban.

What you people did:
Laughing.
Ignoring me.
Playing the mighty Anti cheater.

My guess: better genetics due to no inbreeding from his family, plus this thing called "education" which passed you by, I suppose

We don't like cheaters and you cheated, deal with it. You went into some server or other with a bunch of hacks, not caring about the other 30-40 people in the game or the fact you were ruining their enjoyment of it... just so you could get "revenge". And that revenge was this...

Quote:So when they banned you, your course of action was to prove how absolutely right they were to do so. Good idea.

Seems to me the server owners are very good judges of character. They banned you for cheating and you cheated. Didn't happen in the same order, but that's too bad for you: they were still right to ban you, clearly.

@SNiper_de7: Why are you smarter then me ??

for starters? a guy who comes onto the forums and admits he cheats (when he could possibly have cheated against a person on the forums) and acts like we don't have a right to cuss at him, despite it being his fault in the first place that he downloaded and installed his cheats. Then gets a hissy-fit when people get mad at you for ruining games and starts to ruin more games (which, really never affected me any bit) What it seems like to me is that you got mad, because people - over the internet (i say this once again to make a point that people thousands of miles away should not make an impression such as the one it had on you) - and then decided to counter your bad mood by cheating so you could feel good about yourself at the expense of other people.

Anyways, you still didn't tell me what clan you're in.
