Somethin odd happened to me just now when i tried to log onto the N00bstories server in Renegade Alert. It said i was banned from that server. I havent the slightest clue as to why the hell it does, because thats the only N00bstories server i play on at all, and i dont cheat. Crimson, is there something wrong with the bot, and it needed to be taken offline, or what?

As for the RG issues, make sure what RG thinks ur WOL nick is is what ur WOL nick is.

RenAlert does not support Renguard. Therefor it isnt a Renguard problem.

It's a server problem that happens referred to as the "WOL" bug. There are other ways to connect, posted on our forum. Or use another name.
