i am new to renegade and just signed up at westwood online a few days ago. my brother set up everything for me because i didnt know what i was doing. the first few times i logged in rengaurd worked fine. my name on it is speedie48. after that it says that i have been banned for trying to bypass for the name hendrick9. i know this is the name that my brother uses but i have no way to talk to him for about 2 more weeks because he is starting back at college. id like to know how to get unbanned so that i can play the game. thank you for anything that you can tell me. any help from you would be greatly appreciated.

I have looked at the past threads on these matters, and from what i can see, you have only ever unbanned 5 people out of 50 maybe? A couple of which, were accidental. I am not going to judge him, but in my opinion. A second chance allways seems to work. (Never more than 2 chances).

If you take into account that he is new (so he says) i dont think the first thing he would have done is go on the net for some cheats? I mean i didnt even know UnknownCheats existed until a few days ago and i have been playing for a few months now.

all id like to know is if there is someone here who can help me if not i will leave.

there is hardly any exploits on that site, theres only basically cheats, plus theree the old ones.

Not sure why they do not allow the link, maybe it is to do with the fact that Renegade Forums does not wish to be affliliated with UC.
