You need a registered nickname/to register.
Check the mIRC help files for information on how to register.

To Register(get "mode +r") your nickname, any of the following works:

Function:

/msg NickServ register <password> <your e-mail>

/NickServ register <password> <your e-mail>

/NS register <password> <your e-mail>

Examples:

/msg NickServ register KluYa Cecil.Harvey@FF4LunaBase.net

/NickServ register MistDragon Rydia_of_Mist@Village.of.Mist.com

/NS register Mindslave KainHighwind@GolbezOutpost.org

-----

To later Identify yourself with the server(to again get "+r"), do this:

Function:

/msg NickServ identify <password>

/NickServ identify <password>

/NS identify <password>

Examples:

/msg NickServ identify KluYa

```
/NickServ identify MistDragon

```
/NS identify Mindslave

-----
For further help, it's highly suggested you take a moment to personally query NickServ. To do so, simply type one of the following:

Function:

/msg NickServ help

/NickServ help

/NS help

-----
Remember. The nickname your register is the only nickname you can Identify yourself for unless you link nicknames.(If the server allows it.) Another benefit of registering your nickname is that no one else may use that name without the password. Therefore, don't give out your password.

End tutorial.

I don't know why you guys are so willing to help people who can't even get a sentence done without a myriad of grammar errors and lazy "shortened words" put in. They don't deserve your help.

If you refused to help on those grounds, maybe they'd find some incentive to fix their disgraceful writing skills. I'm sick of seeing these low IQ morons come to this forum for help and I hope to god I'm not the only one.

Honestly guy, you just who the fuck cares. Your probably one of the few people who think noobs are noobs and no one should help them, well guess what? you were once a noob yourself, same with everyone here so therefore, and who helped us when we were noobs? people who have been around the gaming community and computers for a long time. so therefore, unless you were born with an IQ 120 sit down shut up and take it in the ass.

o and btw, sry to the guy who posted this topic, but i have no clue how to fix, i just wanted to give a piece of my mind.
