Read this for more details.

You can play this game for free! Its a huge MMORPG game, you can download the installer at <http://www.lineage2.com> , its almost 2GB to download though lol..

But this game is definately kickass if you like MMORPG games.
The official L2 servers are "pay 2 play" though, so you wont be able to play on these unless you pay for it

Neat. I probably won't play it, though. Unless you got a good couple of people playing on the server.

It does not matter what ThePlanet says. The fact is that the L2j emulator is 100% legal in all ways. As long as the server does not edit the client or touch anything like that client side. The server is Legal and can not be taken down. Editing the client though is not allowed. Zunnie is running a L2j Emulator customized by St0rm. It is Legal.

Wrong. If NCsoft intended anyone to run L2 servers, you wouldn't need to modify your HOSTS file to circumvent the NCsoft server's protection.

"NC Interactive has designed Lineage II for play only as offered by NC Interactive at the Web Site. You agree to play Lineage II only as offered by NC Interactive at the Web Site and not through any other means. You agree not to use any hardware or software, including but not limited to third party tools, or any other method of support which may in any way influence or advantage your use of the Service which is not authorized by NC Interactive, including but not limited to the use of 'bots' and/or any other method by which the Service may be played automatically without human input. You further agree not to create or provide any other means through which Lineage II may be played by others, as through server emulators."

Nice try though.

"l2j is legal... so host away, and to keep yourself even safer just make sure you keep the source with the server files."

"Think about this: The server was MADE by people to look like to emulate something, BUT the source code is totally original, and in NO WAY does it say ANYWHERE that this is the real server. To give you an idea, we could call this Lime Age or Lineage but the name isnt what makes it original, its the code design, and as long as we arnt complete in emulation as it will almost be impossible to do, than we should be fine, and even if the name was a problem, we have already stated countless times on this site that NCSOFT is the creator of Lineage2 and that in no way do we claim rights to anything that they produce.

In America you are allowed to have competitors, and since EVERYTHING in l2j is completely original, even the concepts in CERTAIN issues *Arguably * Than there is NO issue with running a server that was made hand up by people doing it out of there own free will that they in no way seek to make a profit off of. THOUGH if you download another client made by someone, in this case NCSOFT, there are agreements you make that in most cases legally bind you to not use there software other than the intended purposes, specifcally or otherwise, explicitly or not, implied or not, or seen by your or not. You choose to use the software THEY made that IS completely original, has copy rights, along with intellectual patents, in order to fulfill some want and or need in your personal life that is present but you may only do so on the terms STATED by NCSOFT.

BUT there is a problem in NSCOFTS agreement EULA, they cant control how you use that software if it is intact and uneffected directly by the system surrounding it. So if you modify your personal system and not the file you downloaded than it is perfectly legal. In laymens terms: You cant change the software because thats illegal, but you can change its indirect surroundings, (ie the Host file).

That i believe is the angle that L2J along with the other true emulator servers take on the subject. Though i could be wrong since it was never fully explained to me, other than the common DONT MODIFY THE CLIENT saying."

It's "it's" not "its". "It" isn't a noun, which means there's no plural.

The apostrophe replaces the space and the i of "it is".

It's = it is.

Not a hard concept to grasp.

Jealous of your idiocy? Wow, you must really be that stupid. What's there to be jealous of? If I was jealous, you'd see my envy. I don't insult when I'm jealous.

Iron Warrior, I look at myself in the mirror all the time, and I like what I see. Unfortunetely, I'm sure you would too. shudders at the thought

What vile DNA? If, in your world, vile means "intelligent", then yes, I have vile DNA. If you mean the literal meaning of vile, then you're sadly mistaken.

I have to admit:

Quote:17-08|06:40:42] <xptek> I have a problem with 99.99% of them, since they're mostly illiterate morons.

[17-08|06:40:53] <z> Your wrong.

[17-08|06:42:49] <xptek> Thanks for proving my point.

THAT was funny.

If you don't like it then no one needs to hear your complaining, what purpose do you serve besides taking up space and taking over productive people's oxygen like reborn,zunnie,oxi,etc. Xptek, you are an attention whore, that is all.

He said that xptek was being a Grammar Nazi, so xptek's just basically showing he doesn't give a fuck if he is or not. We, unlike many others, appreciate people using good grammar whether or not it's the internet.

How the fuck does that mean anyone used a website program..

It just means that the HTML complies with w3c HTML 4.01 standards...

meaning the markup language is very clean, why the fuck would it mean anyone used a website creation program..
