He wasn't cheating. He was "testing out a hack he saw somewhere with a friend of his on an empty server." Shame on you for not knowing that. Or maybe it was just a mistake on Crimson's part again. Goodness knows she's been screwing up left and right lately, judging from all the newcomers to these forums and all the complains of blacklisted executables! Bad Crimson, bad! For those of you who are. . .well. . . Stupid. . . Yes. Yes, this is a sarcastic post.
