My little bro seems to think that his friend's brother has Renegade for Xbox. While I liked the idea I told him that was ridiculous and obserd. While at the same time I wanted to know if anyone here had heard about it. I know they didn't like manufacture the game for the Xbox, but possibly somebody took the software and made an Xbox game disc.

Nope there is no version for the Xbox. I don't know how he got the idea.

I seriously don't understand why people always make up stories like this, for no reason what so ever. I Know some people who also make stories that are like this. Like they already had Tiberan Sun in 97, or something. Or someother guy who also makes up stories about his study, Only problem for him is I already did the same study and knows it completly bogus.

The problem I always find with these lies, is that everyone with a bit of knowledge knows they are false, and still they tell them like they are completly true. A friend of mine can also be a the biggest fucking lier there is, but his lies are at least a bit based on truth (Not that I like the fact that he fucking lies to my face).

Maybe he just has a random FPS for the XBox and is illiterate and therefore thinks that the title of the game says Renegade. Just a random crazy idea to explain it.

^that's what I thought at first but I can't think of any game for xbox with "Renegade" or anything similar in the title.

and yea, I hate those kind of liars too.

EDIT: As soon as I can save up some money I'm going to buy or build my own computer that is a lot faster that my parents' computer and I'll be able to play whatever I want. I'm excited, not that any of you Nazis care.
