There are a couple of forums that have had their purposes changed, and it's left many threads in need of recategorization. I am accepting volunteers to gain temporary access to move threads into the appropriate forums.

It is a requirement that you have at least 100 posts.

Please post here if you'd like to volunteer.

unless this is something that requires human intervention to decide where to move it, I would think a simple SQL script would be the easiest way to do what you're trying to do.

Message me on ICQ if you want help with it, I'd be happy to look at the tables and write it for you.

-edit.. I hadn't look at the front page categories yet, if you're wanting to move the BHS threads in the uncategorized forum to one of those above it, I guess it would require someone to actuall read the thread to decide where it goes.. Sorry, count me out on that one

I have to go out to dinner in a few, but I will grant "move" access to several of you who have volunteered when I return. The 'Renegade Client' forum which was formerly the "technical support" forum will need at least the last 30-60 days of threads sorted into the new categories, and the "unsorted" forum should be 100% sorted (for searching purposes). It shouldn't take more than a couple of hours total.

Thanks for volunteering for this ugly, but useful task.

The follow folks now have permission to move threads.

Nightma12
Sir Phoenixx
Joseph Collins
Ma1kel
Beanyhead
Hydra
Renx

Just do what you can to sort the "UNSORTED" and "Renegade Client" forums into their appropriate places. For simplicity sake, put FDS Serial questions into the Windows FDS forum because you don't need those for Linux servers. If you're not sure where to sort something, just leave it and maybe someone else will know where.

To move threads, you can click the "move thread" link in the thread in the list, or checkmark a bunch and click "move" at the top.

I'm currently moving questions about ''banned by Rengaurd'' and ''I need a serial'' to their correct sub-forum.

Where are the checkboxes? I don't see them on the forum page, and I don't see an option to go to the moderator forum options like in phpBB. (I'm just doing them one at a time right now...)

I'm going through the unsorted forum.

I'm going through it too, I already filtered 12 pages of the Rengaurd Client, done the Rengaurd Server, done the Rengaurd Network Bans and Core Patches.

EDIT: By the way, I also think there should be added somemore sub-forums and some sub-forum discription should be changed.

Weird... I have the checkboxes... maybe someone with only the "move" permission doesn't get the checkboxes. Shame...

I am open to suggestions if you think the forums should be categorized a little differently.

At present time, I am moving all the threads not directly relating to the Renegade client out of the "Renegade Client" sub-forum and into the other sub-forums.(General Discussions, Tech Support -> Other, etc.) I'm working backwards, however, which means I'm starting from the oldest to the newest.(Yes, even the ones from 2003 on Page 17.) I'll inform you when I'm done. And mind you, I'm using my best judgement on these. There is a 7% chance of me moving a thread to the wrong area. But only 7%.(Well, in that area.)

Edit: When a higher-up gets a minute, nuke the duplicate topics, please.

http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php/t/4834/rid=4946
http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php/t/4835/rid=4946

They are duplicates of this topic. And seeing as that topic has replies and whatnot. . . Yeah.

Second Edit: Another duplicate topic.

Well, just bear in mind that I'm doing this at my own pace. No thanks necessary. Just try not to rush me without proper reason.(Not that you would either way.) :x

On Page 13 as I type this, by the way.(Then again, I did 17 and 16 yesterday, so. . .)

Edit: I really hate this -> <- EmotIcon. I'm trying to type ":x," not an angry face for Pete's sake. Tch. XD

The "Win32 FDS" sub-forum is done, and Joseph Collins is currently checking through the "Renegade Client" sub-forum so that's almost done too. I need to ask, do the "General discussions" and "Renegade Discussions" need to be done too? They were always the same.

The Renegade Client sub-forums look good to me. I probably won't get around to re-arranging the topics from two years ago afterall, but I don't guess it's horribly necessary in the first place, is it? I got busy spriting, actually. . . But yeah, I looked over Ma1kel's work, I don't see any topics out of place. The topics which remain have to do directly with the Renegade client in some form of another. Anything else needs to be done? I dunno. I just fiddled with the Renegade Client forums a little.
