Ok, I know I have created too many ttopics about this map, but here goes:I finnaly got the map working, Everything worked except some of the items didnt respawn. I will fix this. Also, the water, and several textures did not fit right or were messed up so i have to fix that also.It is a good fun map, but needs a little more mending.so in conclusion, it is delayed. Here is a screenshot of it in game, drool now. You may never get to play on it.<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.fetch.php?id=1206973834>

Let me note that this maps first draft was about 5 days. It was completed perfectly except the above mentioned flaws.Seeing as how this was my first map, it can never be as good as my second one. So if I never release this one (I wont release one im not satisfied with), then just wait for my next one, which oddly will be the first one (which you will have played of mine).
