If you want to help clans in this community, give them this link http://clanwars.cc

Nobody uses the WOL clan system anymore, mainly because WOL sucks. Games don't report half the time and nobody will do anything about cheating/pointpush clans.
The clanwars.cc league is a perfectly functional manual report league, with dedicated admin support and none of the crap clans used to have to put up with.

Actually, it is. I had a friggan clan there for alittle while. Then, im guessing, it was deleted. If i remember correctly, you CAN purchase a memborship to do somethin or other, and all that, but its free if you just want to join a clan for Clan Wars.

so stop turning into ACK's   remember, CONTRUCTIVE CRITISICEM nopic, im not sure if that green colour fits in with the renegade background, if you dont have the skill to create something that looks a lil nicer, and not so hard on the eyes   y dont you try just plain text? simple is sometimes a better thing also, i dont see how your going to be able to do the other pages   , but hey! its a nice lil html file for me to keep on my computer for when i wanna go to the clan pages without opening renegade

Sure, gimme about a day and a half, mostly to sleep, and ill have a better Geocities site. Yeah, so what that i dont know shit about coding? Who fuggin cares? If you want to see a much better site, ive manage to actually make a half-way decent one on Geocities. The FreeWebs one i made was a flop, and i deleted it, but still, i have made better on Geocities.
