This may have been asked before, but is there any way. . .at all. . .to find out who's registered a certain Westwood Online user name? As some of you might know, I've had to resign myself to the crappy user name of "StLithius" because the one I really want. . ."DrLithius". . .is taken. I want to know who took it and I want to know if there's any way they could un-take it. I want it, damn it. And I don't think this DrLithius actually plays on Westwood Online anymore to begin with.

I am not suggesting you do this, but you could brute force his account. The method of undertaking this is up to you, but i could assist you if you need help.

And here I thought you'd given up on being a hacker/cracker. Naughty naughty, Xeon. No, if possible, I'd rather do this on-the-level. . . But thanks for the suggestion. Sort of.

See. . .that's all the answer I wanted, there.  A simple "yes" or "no".  Had a "yes" arisen, I would have then expanded on that had the person typing not already done so.  But I digress.

Thank you, Renx.

. . .  Hee hee. . .  "Rencks".

It depends on what extent you wish to go to.
