I know what he does on these forums and I completely agree with you. But starting a flame war isn't going to help anything.

Im not trying to start a flame war. Im just calling him names, and then ignoring every single thing he posts from now on. Hes already on my ignore list, and im keeping him there. Even if he somehow managed to become intelligent, hes staying. That was my one flame of the day. Or atleast of this dipshit.

Supposed to be banned. This guy is worse than cheekay about spamming. All his posts were either one word, an agreement with one word, a not backed up arguement, or the thumbs up smiley. That would be why i told cheekay to stop using them, i wanted to forget this dumbass.

Kinghigh, you know a shotgun will clear up that intelligence problem you have.

P.S. Your on my ignore list now, so any replies you may have will result in me not posting back. I suggest you take this time to post something clever, bearing in mind that any joke involving the words "your" and "mom" can immediately be stricken from the list of "clever comebacks."

I really, really don't like it, you could have at least blended the edges.

P.S. Kinghigh please trip over in front of a bus.

Add a mask then use the gradient tool from black to white or vice versa on the mask you added to blend.

Using Photoshop is easy. Using it well is another matter. I would recommend www.good-tutorials.com or pixel2life.com for people who want to learn

Couldnt find anything that helped me in learning how to work with the masks and everything, like DJM was talking about.

There are plenty of tuts there for masks:

<http://www.good-tutorials.com/search.php?q=mask&submit.x=0&submit.y=0>

Use the search option.
