[Edit: Crimson posted contents in thread]

Hey all I would like to say one thing, but before I do I would like to ask that the E-terrosts DO NOT take over this thread this thread is very important to me

I would like to say that I am sorry to anyone I may have made mad. (even spoony)

The last time I wrote something likw this I got cursed out. I am sorry for cheating and yes I should be banned but crimson is nice enough not to. I have been a !@$ @$$$. I am sorry for that. I have also gotten my share too. To cut down this thread so it does not go for like 3 pages. I will just get stuffedreptile.com and its server I am also selling my cd key /serials my bots relays programs. But is it ok if I still stick around here? Until I find a site to stay @???? Thanks nopic

Why didn't you just post it in this thread? Hmm, I think I'll scan my computer now.

Either way, we were letting you stay even if you did continue to cheat, but don't think that just because you're "clean", you'll be liked by everybody. We'll put up with you as we already have done, but you need to make yourself liked. Your apology is a start.

Thanks Crimson

Don't worry nopic, we won't take over this topic. Remember, we only said that we take over topics with no point. This topic serves a true purpose. If you are thinking about what I said in "recreate the beta", it was just a joke. Just don't post useless topics

Besides, Crimson is trying to put an end to our hijacking

Keep playing Renegade. It can be a fun game when played properly. Don't cheat. Cheating is not fun and is even less fair. Sticking around here is fine as long as you don't act like a dipshit which you have definitely done in the past. Basically, before posting anything, sit back and think about what you want to say. Type it out, but don't post it yet. Read it over. Does it make sense? Are your words spelled correctly to the best of your knowledge (I'm not saying use the spellcheck feature, since I don't, but at least make an effort to check it yourself)? Read it again. If you can, get someone else to proof-read it. Then sit back and think once more "does it really need, not just a reply, but my reply?".

Depends on who you are. I take it that from a cheaters/hackers point of veiw it would be ever so slightly different.

What?

And man! Crimson, you could at least put a stop to it once I'd had a chance to use my last thread hijack:

instead of selling the bots to someone else who will be annoying with them why don't you just delete them and donate your key to BHS? That is if you really are trying to help the community and better yourself or whatever it is your up to ...
