Yes, a snow map, with very well done bases and mountain paths (every good map has well balanced sneak points and vehicle entry, this one has those too),. And a small outpost with a large graveyard marks the trail of tears. I am still finishing my Veitnam map (now called C&C_DM_Cambodia) so I will try to cover this map just as well, expect screenies and updates. I learned a lot on how maps transfer from renx to leveledit then in renegade so i beleive i can finish some real sweet maps now.I also have another map called Tunnel Vision almost done.
