It's for modding Halo, you can change around the models and things. I use it in conjunction with SparkEdit and Halo Map Tools in order to mod a map.

I used to have that Debian tux as my desktop background.

The hard drive icon came from the author DogmaX on the WindowBlinds website.

Wrath of God is a very looked for card, and Will O of the Wisp has been reprinted, but is still looked after. Very handy card, that one. All you need is one black mana, and you've got yourself a damn good blocker.
