I though you guys would like another place to talk. It's a renegade help site. Just created. If you can't find help here, then go here.

<http://renegadehelp.forumwise.com/>

Have fun.

Renegade doesn't need another help site.

Its a waste of your time.

Site pinging is bad. Put it in your signature if you want people to see it, and if you are lucky, people will get interested and visit.

Doesn't always work since there are people like me who have signitures turned off... Not because I might not be interested in something in someones signiture... but because I am tired of the pull page signitures that a few people seemed to have gotten out of hand with.

Providing a link to something, even if it's your own work, is not bad. It's when you constantly spam about it over and over through several topics is when it is not good.

Everyone is always trying to steal RenegadeForums thunder. I personally would never switch to another site. This one is perfectly fine how it is. Crimson is one of the rare few who has a constantly active forum. There are 100 Million+ forums out there, and hardly any of them are used.

To be fair, I had a running start with these forums considering they used to belong to Westwood.
