In Toronto there has been over 150 reports of people stealing children's candy. In one incident, a 15 year-old boy was confronted by two or three older boys and was told to give them his candy. When the 15 year-old refused, one of the older boys stabbed the kid in the stomach, took his candy and ran off.

The 15 year-old will make a full recovery, doctors say.

Crazy isn't it? Over candy! What is this world coming to?

That's pathetic ... what self respecting person goes out and steals candy from younger kids? These are the jag offs that should be hung upside down and punched in the face. I swear if I heard or saw that happen around here I would hunt them down and bring them in. wheather their intact or not depends on if they are agreeable. It's assholes like that, that cause the cities to limit trick-or-treating to 2 hours in the middle of the day.

Heh, you don't think so? What about the lynchings of black people. I see killing people over race as even stupider than over candy.

You're probably right...that's committing a crime just because someone exists.

But still...fucking CANDY. What. The. Hell.

Maybe, or maybe not right, but either way we did it.

Me and about 10 guys, went around on halloween night, looking for kids who stole other kids candy (honestly, we were being good guys for once) and every kid we seen, we said give it back or we kik the shit out of yea, everytime cept one, the kids gave it back.

The one time, my friend jake, kiked him to the ground, and took the candy back, no fights really. We stood on a corner with about three pillow cushions full giving candy to the little ones i felt so good that night.

me n my pal didn't go around for candy but we went around lookin for kids who throw eggs at us and when they do, we try to get em. Only a couple went for us this year, hid behind some parked cars and we couldn't find em... terrible aim though, from across the street they came up short.

steel toe boots for nothin'.

I blame the parents. Again. If you're gonna get kids, raise them well. Or if you can't be arsed, don't get kids.

I've been thinking of buying a couple of kids to put the abandoned PS1 in use. It looks so sad in the closet, all alone, collecting dust...

One kid offered to give us his bag of candy, in exchange for not egging him. He left his candy in the middle of the road and ran. We didn't egg him, but we didn't take his candy either :>

Definately not an urban legend.

I know alot of kids around here in hamilton who got beaten bloody for their candy.

Stupid really.
