Hi there I know there are other pressing problems but is renegade down? I have tried multiple times and no such luck, so is it down and when is the estimated come back, or is it up and am I in a real pickle?

Keep it simple plz, If it was "opposite's day", I would be Bill Gates!

Thx xxredrum

I am having the exact same problem that you are having. Been trying to get on for the last hour or so but no dice. Im not sure if it is because of RG or Renegade. I came here to see if it was a glitch in RG but it seems that WOL is down. I looked at the server list of people on the top 5 WOL servers and there are only 2 people online when usually there are hundreds. So I assume that WOL is the problem and not RG. Hopefully whatever is going on it will pass because I would really like to play soon.
