Out of all the C&C games which ones do you like the least?

C&C Generals.

It's not even considered a C&C game, so nevermind.

If i'm allowed generals, then I pick it.

Aside from that, RA2 Yuris Revenge.

EA killed C&C

generals isn't C&C so can't pick that... I'd say Tiberian Sun because I never really got into playing that. i don't say other games are better, i say I like it least because of circonstances proolly...

Like other people said, Generals isn't a C&C game.

I never played soul survivor so can't say anything about that game. But RA2, I liked the least of all C&C games I have. Although Even that game was fun. The Story line, was the only bad thing actually to my opinion.

In terms of plotline, RA2:YR sucks. In terms of the interface, Tiberian Sun and Firestorm suck. If Tiberian Sun had RA2's GUI, that'd be totally awesome.

aalthough RA2/Yuri's plot was a bit ridiculous by timles, it still carried me away, so i must say it wasn't that bad . especially the intro movie at Yuri's revenge (with the airstrike at alcatras island) is quite nice!

Like everyone one else here, Generals. But for a true C&C I'd say Tiberian Sun, I think it's very boring.

Generals of course. But if it doesn't count, then I'd say Yuri's Revenge.

Depend's singplayer. Generals single player sucks. It might aswell been just copied of this time. C&C singplayer of the other were all great to play, just like in Metal gear Solid it feels like your in the movie itself.

Multiplayer of Generals is ok, but it still sucks. So Generals I guess.

Generals, sorry just had to throw that in Tiberium Sun, I never got into that game and Kane was cool until that game came along.

TS would have to be my least favorite; it was way too slow for me.

Although I hate how the butchered the story in RA2, the gameplay more than made up for it.

I liked TS the least, mostly because the maps were all brown and the music never really got my attention. Seemed too depressing or something... Oh yeah, and the civillian buildings were all white.

Yuri's Revenge. Arnie Frankenfurter being the single redeeming feature, haha.

Same thing for me until I increased the speed slightly. Then I actually started to like TS. Try it, maybe you will start to like it too just like me.

Quote:wow i am surprised to see that so many people dislike generals.

Well, a lot of people who visit these forums (myself included) were huge fans of Westwood. Generals was made AFTER EA gave Westwood the axe, and it bears no resemblance whatsoever to any other game bearing the C&C title. That still has a lot of people (myself included) fairly pissed.

But anyway...

RA2/YR. I've had a lot of fun with both, but they're both just too over-the-top in terms of ridiculous plot. RA2 just BARELY fit the universe, YR went off on a tangent- and several units made multiplayer a wee bit balance-impaired.

I agree with others here, though...the GUI for RA2/YR was incredible. If TS/FS had that GUI, I'd be in C&C happyland.

I didnt like the plotline, irratated me.

I didnt like the infantry.

I didnt like the "tanks", if you can even call them that.

I just plain out didnt like it.

I wasn't too fond of RA2 or YR.

As for my favorites, they would have to be TS and Red Alert, in that order.

Red Alert 2 and Yuri's Revenge, the game is fun but i hate it due to the crap story they have. It dosent sound like a sequel at all in my view.

Generals. Even though it's not a bad game, it let the team down more than RA2.

Once you understand RA2 was always meant to be silly, things got easier.

At least that's what I tell myself.

You know, depending on what side you win/complete the RA2 story line with it either opens a timeline for Yuris Revenge to take place or C&C 95. C&C 95 then creates the timeline for Tiberian Sun. Hope that clears things up
