As I recal, it is made By White Dragon, and your best bet is the Black-Cell website:
http://www.black-cell.net/

Apologies if i'm wrong.

DragonServ (DS) is a privately managed project and is not open to the public.

Or not open to the public, yet. Hopefully it will be soon.

The only time it becomes public will be when someone hacks Black-Cell like they did last time. I don't think they have plans to release it any time soon.

Nobody "hacked" Black-Cell to get Dragonserv. Just lied and fun stuff like that.

Isnt it fun when you lie to anyone and get caught doing it? Like if you lied to your parents, then they found out, what would they do? "You're soo grounded Mr."

Does that have anything to do with lying? Nope.

My parents kicked my ass when I lied to them and got found out. Especially once when I skipped like half of my last year in school then did a load of forged notes from my parents saying I was ill. I didn't sit for a week, let alone go out anywhere. Other than detention, because when the school found out, I got a months worth!

No, because it turns into "TYZ SUCH A FAGIT HE HACKED BLACK-CEAL" on the internet.

I don't think it was BC that said that though Ty, I thought the rumor was started here that you "hacked" BC to get DS.. I could be wrong.

I spoke to vloktboky for like 2 minutes to say how sorry I was, because despite the differences I have had with Black-cell in the past, I recognized how much hard work he and Whitedragon did on that because I helped Beta test it, but he literally told me to fuck off and die.....I guess old vendettas die hard.
