hi. i was wondering, if i download any skins, does that affect RG or wont i be able to play in some servers? can i turn the skins off and on or do i have to delete them when i can't use them in a game? i mean just the skins for other colours for tanks and inf. or are there only few servers that allow the skins?
greets, gsxR

Most skins nowadays are RG friendly meaning that you CAN run RG while having skins the only time when you cannot connect to a server with skins is when the server is running "Pure Mode" which basically means no skins allowed what so ever, there is no option to turn your skins off besides removing them from your data folder (Dont have to delete them just Cut and Paste into another folder).
