Server side or client side?
Edit: I think server side as it tries to change server.dat. Might be important for the not-modding-aware people .

server.dat is server side file.

And i found that most servers that run BrenBot on GSA will allow players to join with a fake generated CD key

SSCP1 1.3 already contains a similiar fix

Obviously if people were still complaining about the bug, not everyone runs or wants to run SSCP1. Not to mention non-dedicated games.

Ermm this patch is SERVER side, I think you tried installing it CLIENT side. Can you confirm that you're running a server and are trying to install it on this server?

i use tree view. Beacuse it opens the Renegade Free Dedicated Server. And Configuration File is server.ini

I found the bug but i don't know what to do?

bug is:

It Writes
Initializing GameSpy Q&R...
Loading Map 100%

And When someone Joins to my server it Restarts(
Again Initializing GameSpy Q&R...
Loading Map 100%
)

and game Closes.

In gamespy, there's a default setting to only show servers in your country. That's very annoying! Uncheck the box with this setting (somewhere at the bottom of the gamespy list) and you'll get all servers.

Maybe you should tryout WOL, though?
