RenEvo Stats is Official Shutting down!

I'm am very disapointed because for most of us, RenEvo was the way to go for score-keeping! I'm a little surprised tho, even with WOL shutting down, they could run the stats from the XWIS servers! Anyway, I'm really sad to see it go

Not sure who you are, but no one at RenEvo made any official announcement about anything.

I will see about getting them back up and running after the switchover to XWIS is complete.

I figured this out by look at a RenEvo WOL Stat siggy that said RenEvo had shutdown

To check, I went to the website and couldn't find anything on the WOL Stats...

Regardless of what happens with RenEvo, there is always a different version of this same script that Dante created that I have hosted for a couple years:

http://www.n00bstories.com/stats/renegade\_stats.php?player=Crimson&team=gdi2

Where "team=gdi2" can be replaced with any of the images here.
