I think that we should all work together on a huge christmas special map. I was thinking of a map inside a big Wal-Mart. some people could make things like special vehicles, characters, models for the map, unique textures, and stuff i haven thought of yet. Then someone could put it all together keeping in mind the christmas theme.

What do you think?

And while you're at it, I'd like a frozen hell level with flying pigs instead of Orcas and Apaches.

I can't help. I don't have the time right now. (Master Degree holding me(evening courses) and job during the day, I am in a hard work period untill the 8th of december.)

But you can recruit ack for some bad models or crappy skins, he has enough time to post on a lot of forum everyday, he could maybe use some of his time to help you I think.

I could try some modeling if someone can convert .blend files to .w3d (I use blender for modeling because Gmax hates me)

I currently work at WalMart, and I have no complaints about my job.

It's a matter of personal opinion I guess.

There is already a x-mas map made by WNxcabal each year (Snowfight). I don't like ti that much but the idea ain't original anyway .

Saying that is almost like saying that you can't throw a Christmas party because so-and-so already throws a Christmas party every year, and so the idea isn't original.
