WOL was shut down, so anything relating to a WOL rank is no more. Strike Team is responsible for the WOL-substitution, so anything relating to a ladder, or lack thereof could probably be found in their forums.

Xwis ( Strike teams WOL clone ) only supports ladders for TS, RA2 and RA2:YR at this time.

There's still a ladder on my server, except I think you got banned for repeatidly flooding our forums with accusations that Spoon is ONE SHOT DEAD CHETER.

Once we get RenGuard re-stabilized, I hope to work with ST to get a ladder back online. First, just using the old method, then perhaps tweaking it to something better.

Why did the old method stop working?

When the XWIS changeover hapend.. it still worked like 3 days after.

And games were still updated. It used to do this even when WOL stil worked.. Ladder would just not work for a month or 2 maybe thats whats happening. Stats still work though.
