botomatic just posted here: http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=msg&goto=182437&rid=4039#msg_182437

tells ya if people didn't know.

It reads:

Quote:XWIS and Strike Team down

XWIS and Strike Team are currently down due to essential maintenance of the host's network. The expected downtime is three to four hours and the services are expected to be back at 2 am GMT.

Updates will be posted as soon as they're available.
We apologise for the inconvenience.

XWIS Admin

I would have appreciated a heads up from Strike-Team posted here BEFORE they took it offline though.

From that post, it doesn't look like it's their fault, it looks like their host was causing the problems by upgrading their network or something. Perhaps they didn't know that the server was going to be offline.

Well it's back up. I guess if they had no idea I can't blame them. (Their response time is faster than EA's)

A simple failure to connect to XWIS couldn't possibly destroy your PC.

That's no wonder, considering RG is known to have blown up toasters too.

Well, you said that some people call Renegade "RG", and I thought everyone was talking about just Renguard. So I thought that you were clarifying something for me.

oh. Normally when people quote a post and say "fixed", they change the quoted post to a "fixed" version, so I was confused.

Then why post in a thread about XWIS, the replacement for WOL, instead of the RenGuard support forum?

Somewhat off topic, but is it just me or does Strike-Team.net have popups? Because if it has popups, that's one of the biggest outrages since EA gave WOL over to XWIS, which seems to be down a lot more than WOL was.
