!rg <playername> -> shows if a player runs RG.

!forcerg <playername> -> if 3 players do this, the non-rg player will be kicked

Those are brenbot commands. There's a shitload of them . It depends on which version of SSAOW/brenbot the server runs. Do !commands or !help in the server to see them.

!bind and !lock aren't RenGuard commands, and only some servers require you to use RenGuard to use them.

Besides, i've found on a lot of server it will popup saying "you need RG" but it works anyway.

One serve that you need rg to use the brenbot commands is Jelly-Server

!bind !lock !bl !unlock are not brenbot or renguard commands.

They are a command set added by SSAOW 1.4.

Ae0nflux hot pic To bad I am Australian

Thanks. I think that !bind, !lock, and !bl are brenbot commands because on jelly and some other servers you are required to have renguard in order to use those commands. Also, on Nonooobs you need to have renguard to use !Ladder I believe.

Those commands are implemented by SSAOW itself in its chathooking code (go look for yourself)
