websiteBrad Pulaski had died of blunt trauma to the head after being repeatedly bludgeoned with an iPod, a popular MP3 player produced by Apple.

website“It took him a while to die,” Dr. Klamut said. “She must have stabbed him 40 to 80 times with that iPod. His death was not instantaneous, that’s for sure”

Quote:Police said no motive has been confirmed, although evidence suggested the murder was the result of a domestic dispute after Pulaski erased the contents of Mathers' iPod.

...

Really. That's just stupid.

iPods are on thing that seriously piss me off.

They seem to be more of a fashion accessory than an mp3 player. They are overpriced, overrated, unreliable and added to that they just totally camp. In addition to this you have to use shitty iTunes to put music on the player.

Zen Sleek all the way!

I like my Shuffle, it was well priced and the build quality and battery life is great.

Plus I use the ml_iPod plugin for WinAmp. Screw iTunes.
