I have a deathmatchserver up. It runs a couple deathmatch maps. From what i know there is hardly any lag.Im running brenbot and ssaow 1.4

The game name is: [RG] JeepRubi's Deathmat server

The host name is: JeepServ1

Hope to see you guys on it!

BTW: Its not up all the time but ill try to have it up as much as i can.

Sure but the only problem is that i want most people to have the maps because if no one has the map no one will play on the server because they cant.

I'd like to see a good ole DM/Infantry only server up.

Just place all your maps on a webserver get a domain, and post the web address as your server's name.

How many players and what type of server is running this?
