I am sure you haven't done it yet, but are you going to apply smoothing groups to the barrels?

Of course, all groups were removed from the model to show its detailing.

Very nice model indeed!

Can't wait to play APB now!

Aircraftkiller, the mammoth tusk missiles on the side seem to be slightly further outwards than the reference.

I'll happily stand corrected if they're not.

Wow that thing is huge, and it looks much more bad-ass than normal Mammoth.

lol

The model looks good. The tusk missiles just need to be closer to the husk as previously mention.
